

Rules of Entry

Closing date

The last day to send in submissions for the competition is 11:59pm, Sunday 31st January 2021

Entrants

1. Each entrant may only submit one photograph.
2. Entrants must be of primary or secondary school age (aged 4-18).
3. Family members of the judging panel may take part in the competition but will not be eligible for prizes or awards.

Images

4. Images must depict an element of Scotland's buildings, monuments or archaeology. Portraiture or images of nature will not be accepted.
5. The Theme for 2020 is CLIMATE CHANGE. If you'd like some ideas of what to photograph for this theme, see the My Place Photography page.
6. Images can be colour or black and white.
7. Images should be saved as .jpeg files.
8. All images entered must be the original work of the entrant. If the image has been manipulated (cropped, for example), then this must have been done by the entrant, not an adult.
9. If photographs contain images of children under the age of 18, a parent or guardian must have provided written permission for the photographs to be taken. Participating schools, clubs and societies are responsible for ensuring this has been done.

Submitting entries

10. A digital copy of each photograph must be submitted to our website by registered members.
11. Individual entries from parents or pupils cannot be accepted – entries can only be submitted by schools, clubs or societies, or parents/teachers in the case of home educated children.
12. All entrant information should be added to the online form when submitting images. See our guidelines for registering as a member and for submitting for more information.

Judging

13. Judges appointed by the Scottish Civic Trust and Historic Environment Scotland will choose the winning entries. The judges' decision will be final.

Copyright

14. Copyright of the images will remain with the entrant, though the Scottish Civic Trust will be granted non-exclusive rights in perpetuity for publication, digitisation, exhibition and broadcast - this may include the granting of reproduction rights to selected third parties for promotional or other uses, such as Visit Scotland.

Conditions

15. All images are submitted at the entrant's own risk: the Scottish Civic Trust regrets that they cannot take any liability for loss of or damage to them.
16. Entry to the competition confirms acceptance of the above rules.

Supported by:

